A new French ironalad, the Hoche, is to be lau nobed at L'Orient by Admiral Aube, the Minister of Marine. On account, however, of its great draught, the Hoche can never go beyond the Suez Canal. Its total cost, including the armament, will be 19,000,000fr., or £760,000.

Two Frenchmen, it is reported from Panama. have been fighting a duel with carbines at Bohio. Two shots were exchanged, and honour declared to be satisfied, without bloodshed on the part of either of the principals, but a negro who was passing at the time was, unfortunately, shot dead. "Hence," comments the France. "it was concluded that the carbines were really loaded . New York is busy discussing designs for a-

It is in the form of three cylindrical temples, one within the other, the topmost point surmounted by a silver angel; while the innermost temple would contain a bronze statue of the General. Others are of larger dimensions and cost, the most expensive being reckoned at £40.000.

> .The egotism of the American military writer has been neatly satirised in the Brooklyn Eagls in an anecdote short enough to quote :- " 'Oh.' said the proprietor of a type foundry to his foreman, as he opened and read another of the letters received by the morning mail, 'there is an order for three tons of capital "I's" from the Epoch Magazine people.' 'What's up now, then,' rejoined the foreman, 'a new fishing story?' 'Oh, no, was the reply, 'it's another article on the Battle of Shiloh by an officer who was in command of the field."

The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian writes:—There is a small agitation going on of a fashionable kind in favour of the marriage whenever the time and event arriveof the Prince of Wales's eldest son to some Eng. lish lady, and that so the practice, which in the case of the House of Brunswick has been uniform, of going abroad to find a consort for the King or Queen of these realms should be abandoned. The reasons for and against such a marriage need not be discussed; they are sufficiently evident both as matter of fact and sentiment. But there is the question of law, which really, under the provision of the Royal Marriages Act, rests solely with the Sovereign. Without the consent of the Queen such a marriage would be illegal. The Queen's consent must be declared in Council but the assent of the Council is needless, and that of Parliament is taken only in regard to the pecuniary provision upon the marriage or upon Address to the Crown.

An amusing story has been going the round of the French papers respecting a General whose recent duelling exploits have excited some amusement both in England and on the Continent. This worthy brave is said to be possessed of an extraordinary coat of mail. One day, so the story goes, General — sent for a clever artisan in Paris, and demanded of him whether he would engage to make a coat of nail, to be worn under the ordinary dress, which should be absolutely sword and bullet proof The man promised to does requested, naming 19,000 francs as the price of it. . The bargain was speedily concluded, and in due time the article was brought round to the General's house. The General took it up, carefully examined it, and, turning to the man, told him to put it on. The man did as he was bid. "As you guarantee the efficacy of your coat, you will have. I presume, no objection to my testing it." drily remarked the General, and before the astonished artisan could protest, he took a brace of pistols and discharged them. Half-dead with fear, the man stood the fire, and, to the great credit of his workmanship, with complete impunity. But the General was not content with one trial. He fired a second pistol at the back of the man, and afterwards discharged a fowlingpiece at him with similar effect, or rather noneffect. He also tried in vain to pierce the coat with a sword: The gallant General was so delighted with his new garment that he handed the artisan two cheques for 19,000f., the first being the sum agreed on, and the second cheque in compensation for the fright he had given him.

W. DOBERCK. Hongkong Observatory, 4th November, 1886 THE TROPICAL AGRICULTURIST: MONTHLY RECORD OF INFORMATION FOR

PLANTERS OF Cacao, Cinchona, Coffee, Indiarubber, Sugar, Palms, Cotton, Cardamoms, Kols, Coca, Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Fibrous Plants, and other Products suited for Cultivation in the Tropics.

Published at Observer Office, Colombo, Caylon.

THE TROPICAL AGRICULTURIST has now an assured position in its large circulation in Ceylon, Southern and even Central and Northern India the Straits Settlements, Sumatra, Java, Borneo, Northern Australia, Queensland, Central America, Natal, Mauritius, and the West Indies. From all sub-tropical planting settlements we have had cordial approval of the publication and an encouraging measure of support. The English, Indian and Colonial Press have spoken in commendatory terms of the T.A., as also Directors of Public Gardens from Sir Joseph Hooker, F.R.S. downwards, and so have all planters. No planter should be without it.

Subscription, including postage, in advance 21 Sterling.—Rupees 12;—5 Dollars. Single copies 2s. or RI, back copies 3s. or RI Any one of the four volumes completed, bound in cloth, lettered, with comprehensive index, for £1 10s. (or R18), carriage prepaid.

As a medium for English, American and Australian ADVERTISEMENTS of goods suitable for the tropics, India, as well as Ceylon. the Straits Settlements, Java, and West Indies or connected with agriculture, the Tropical Agriculturist stands unrivalled, the work being constantly in the hands of Native as well as European and American agriculturists. Being a Monthly Periodical, the Tropical Agriculturist lies on the table and is very often referred to foring each month.

Mr. W. T. Thiselton Dyer, F.L.S., C.M.G., Assistant Director of Key Gardens, writing of the T. A., refers to it as "an astonishing repertory of everything relating to the economic botany of the East." For the sale of plants, seeds, machinery, implements, &c., used in tropical (tea, sugar,

AN GLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical tervices this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous ob- jects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of fureign relations has imposed tipen them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exvenies for students of a most instructive rastur. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto naturined. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have herelofore charac- terized Chinese publications. To the illustrate the vast scope of the work	LEAVES HONGKONG, 6.30 A.M., 7.00, 7.30, 8.00, 8.30, 9.30, 10.30, 11.30, 12.30 P.M., 1.30, 2.30, 3.30, 4.30, 5.30, 6.30, 11.00, 12.00. IN G L I S H AND C H I NE S E DICTIONARY: WITH THE PUNIT AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous ob- jects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the expid acvance of fureign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in actions. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punit pronunciations are given the accents boing carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby affecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously stained, and dispensing with those vast murgins and vacant spaces which have heretofore charac- triced Chinese publications. To the illustrate the vast scope of the work following facts are submitted for consideration. Chalmers' Vocabulary on than 50.000 English work contains more than 50.000 English work and upwards of 600,000 Chinese, charac- triced Chinese publications are given the success of the strangement of strangement of the dires as anny as envisines more than five tires as many as e	6.30 A.M., 7.00, 7.30, 8.00, 8.30, 9.30, 10.30 11.30, 12.30 P.M., 1.30, 2.30, 3.30, 4.30, 5.30, 6.30, 11.00, 12.00.
